

These are the only three kingdoms we can see without a microscope.
So, these are the only ones we will be looking at this year.
However, it is important to know that more exist, we just can't see them!

